Home destroyed in Monday blaze

A fire on Duck Lake Road north of Horseshoe Lake completely gutted a mobile home Monday morning.

Firemen were called to the scene at 10:30 a.m. Monday by passing motorists who spotted the blaze. The inside of the single-wide mobile home, owned by Bill Shelding, was completely ablaze when the Minden Fire Department arrived.

Damage caused by the fire is estimated at roughly $20,000.

Deputy Fire Chief Don Booth said the Minden Department is investigating the blaze, but there is still no known cause. He said wiring in a wall between a stove and a small bedroom is suspected of starting the fire, which broke out sometime after 7:30 a.m. when the Sheldings left their home.

The mobile home was built on a full basement foundation.

Booth said the fire started well off the floor of the mobile home in the upper storey of the building.

Twelve firefighters from the Minden Fire Department were at the scene for about three hours. The pump and tank trucks from Minden were deployed, and a second tank truck was called in from the Stanhope Fire Department to cover for the Minden truck while it refilled.

Plodding their way through the sugar bush at the Leslie M. Frost Centre, Belgian horses from the Ingram Wessell farm in Lutterworth Township provided an enjoyable way to tour the area. Some 500 visitors visited the centre Saturday during annual open house, maple syrup display and pancake luncheon.

New structures bypassed as assessors go to Metro

The Municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden may face a significant backlog in new building assessments in the near future once the municipal assessor John Hill is reassigned to the Toronto office April 5.

By-law enforcement officer, Dick Schell, has informed Minden council that Hill, who works out of the Lindsay office and is responsible for Anson, Hindon and Minden townships, will be posted in Toronto for two weeks to help clear up a backlog in assessments in the Metro area.

Hill will spend two weeks in Toronto and one week in Lindsay on his normal duties for Anson, Hindon and Minden. He will continue the Toronto-Lindsay rotation until the Toronto situation is brought under control, according to Regional Assessment Commissioner, Ivor James.

The move will leave 200 to 300 building assessments in Minden municipality untouched while Hill is working in Toronto. The outstanding assessments concern buildings erected in the municipality over the last three years.

Because Hill works for the Ministry of Revenue, he can be reassigned by head office in Toronto to various regions, depending on demand. James said that the implementation of section 86 of the Assessment Act, which recommends that all municipalities in the province bring property assessments up to 1984 values in the next two years, has created problems for Toronto assessors, who must make a presentation to Metro council in regard to property reassessments.

In addition to Hill, 17 other assessors from Haliburton, Victoria and Peterborough Counties will be reassigned to the Toronto rotation.

James said the Toronto assignment will continue into May or June, or possibly as late as July, depending on how long it takes to rectify the complications in Toronto. He said most of the assessors will come from Peterborough City, since they are better acquainted with the kind of urban assessments needed in Toronto.

Closing benefits cottagers, township

Twenty-two property owners on Davis Lake are taking advantage of a group application to purchase shoreline allowance. The move will bring Lutterworth township $7,835 in purchase payments and save the cottagers thousands of dollars in administrative costs.

The shoreline purchase, which is expected to be completed in a year and a half, will be the largest single closure of original shoreline road allowance in Haliburton County since a policy to sell shoreline property was introduced in the summer of 1980.

All shoreline property was originally set aside by the province as allowance for roads. Control of the property rests with the local municipalities. Property owners with frontage on lakes were prohibited from buying shoreline footage in order to preserve it as public land for mariners in distress. With an increasing number of complaints from landowners about boaters and campers using their lake frontage, the county council finally moved to allow owners to buy the shoreline allowance from the county.

Under county policy, landowners pay $250 for the initial 150 feet of shoreline property and one dollar per foot for each additional foot. The Davis Lake closure will affect 23 properties in lots 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Concessions I and II in Lutterworth townships.

Because shoreline closure requires a survey, a public notice, municipal and county by laws and the drafting of legal deeds, the twenty-two Davis Lake owners will be making a substantial saving in administrative fees by applying as a single body.

Landowners purchasing shoreline from a municipality ordinarily pay for all administrative costs of the closure.

While landowners stand to make significant savings, municipal councils will be spared extra administrative work as well. According to Lutterworth clerk-treasurer, Wayne Hughes, the Davis Lake closure is the first time the municipality has received a single application from more than 4 owners. "It's far more streamlined for us to close all the lots as one," he says.

County clerk Winifred Lahay says the Lutterworth transaction is the largest of the seven closures that the county has approved since the policy was introduced.

Minden, Haliburton to share C-I-L collection

The works of 23 major Canadian artists will soon be showing in Minden.

The C-I-L Art Collection opens an exhibition at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery April 7th and at the Rails' End in Haliburton April 8th.

The Minden exhibition will include 25 pieces by artists such as Alex Coville, Sally Wildman, Christopher Pratt, Ken Danby, Jacques Hurtubise and Antoine Dumas.

The C-I-L Collection is a travelling exhibition which was formed in 1962 as the company's contribution to the Canadian visual arts scene. The original collection of 40 paintings was compiled to mark the company's 100th year of business. It is updated on a constant basis to keep abreast of modern painting in the country. The Minden exhibition will be the 196th for the C-I-L collection.

Gallery Curator Margot Zorjen plans to organize the works according to two themes. Paintings reminiscent of the Haliburton Highlands will be shown in one of the gallery's two rooms. The second room will house modern works.

While the Minden exhibition opens Wednesday, April 7th, 21 works from the same collection will open the following day at the Rails' End Gallery in Haliburton. The Rails' End exhibition will include pieces by Art Green, Gershon Iskowitz, William Kurelek, Jean-Paul Lemieux, Alfred Pellan and West Coast artist Jack Shadbolt, as well as eleven other Canadian painters.

Lucinda St. Pierre of Rails' End began planning the twin exhibits in September of last year. She and Margot Zorjen of the Agnes Jamieson Gallery considered 80 slides of the C-I-L works before deciding on which pieces to show at the two galleries. Yvonne Guida and Elizabeth Carrell of Minden also consulted in making the selection of the 46 pieces.

The Rails' End exhibition will feature a series of modern representational paintings which explore perceptions of distance and space.

According to Lucinda St. Pierre, it is well worth visiting both galleries, since the two shows have been arranged so as to offer different artists and distinct themes.

Toronto artist and print-maker Richard Sewell will be using the Rails' End show as the basis for a lecture on painting which he will be giving April 23rd at the gallery. He will also be working with art classes at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School during his visit to the county.

Both exhibitions will be on display until May 1st. The Minden show can be seen Monday to Friday from 3 to 5 p.m., and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Rails' End show is open during the gallery's regular hours.

Students enjoy tour of Greece

Twenty-nine students from Haliburton Highlands Secondary School are back at their desks this week with visions of Greece still haunting their memories.

The students returned to Minden at 1 a.m. Monday after a 10 day reading week tour of Greece.

Six parents and teachers accompanied the students, most of whom came from grade 11 classes at Haliburton High School. Four grade 12 students were with the group as well as one from grade 13.

Tour organizers Frank and Mary Wallace and Mrs. Marion Lodenquai say the trip went exactly as planned. The group was a little surprised to be met by snow when they arrived in Delphi on the third day abroad, but the unexpected temperatures gave them a focus for their trips to the flea market in Athens a few days later - Greek sweaters.

The group left Toronto on March 19 and arrived the following day at their hotel on Athen's Syntagma Square. The first excursion from Athens went overnight to Cornith, Mycenae, Epidarus and Patra the next day, and then on to Olympia and Delphi on the third day of the tour.

The tour of Delphi was extensive despite the snow. The site of the famed Delphic oracle of Greek myth and the alleged spot where Zeus' eagle dropped the stone to determine the exact centre of the earth, the students saw the Museum, the Monastery of Ossios Loucas and the renowned Temple of Apollo.

The fifth day brought the group back to Athens, where the weather was more typical despite high winds. Here they saw the Greek National Parade at the parade grounds of the palace near Syntagma and a presentation of Greek folk dances later that day.

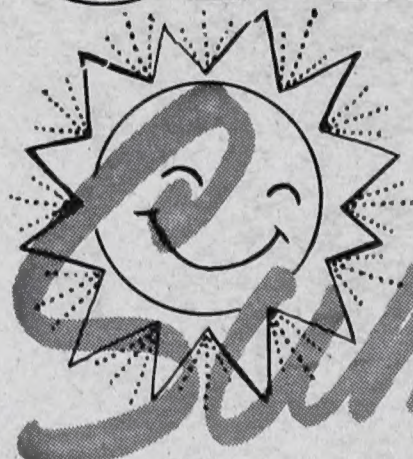

The following day students saw the Acropolis and the National and Archeological Museums, and in the afternoon a tour of Sounio was featured.

The final day of the eight day tour took the students to the Saronic Islands of Egina, Poros and Hydra.

The Greek tour was one of a continuing series offered at Haliburton Highlands Secondary. Mexico was the destination two years ago and the school has another trip to Mexico in the offing for some time next year.

Camping, European style comes to Haliburton Highlands

Campground operator Godfrey Saunders sees a great potential tourist market in Europe and he's part of a plan to tap it.

When Canadians go camping, they generally pack a tent; if they don't it's usually due to an early morning oversight in the Don Mills driveway. But when millions of Europeans arrive at campsites, tents and equipment are already in place. It's a concept that campground owner Godfrey Saunders hopes may open up a new market in the Haliburton Highlands.

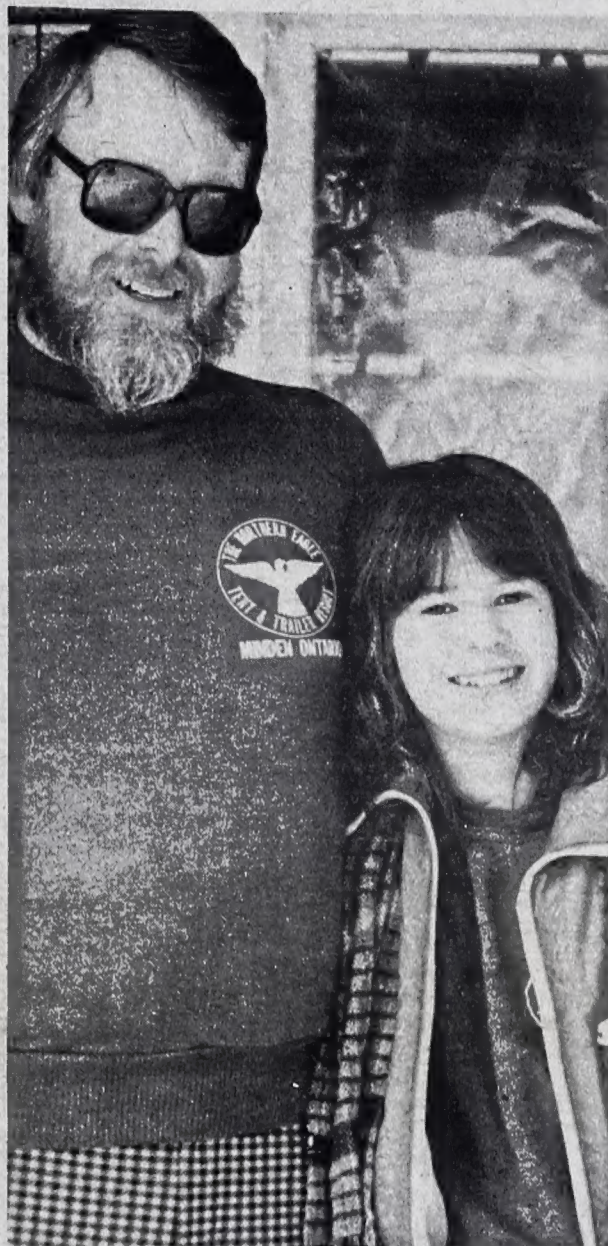

Saunders is working with David Francis and Canadian Canvas Holidays of Caledon East to provide package tours for European campers. For a single package price, they'll get air fare, transportation from Toronto, and a camp site complete with a tent and equipment on the shores of Lake Kashagawigamog.

The scheme had its beginnings when Englishman David Francis came to Canada on holiday and couldn't find the kind of tenting facilities he'd often rented while vacationing in Continental Europe. Francis found that no one in Ontario was in the business of renting sites with tent and equipment included, so he set out to start one himself.

Six locations

Saunders' Northern Eagle Tent and Trailer Park is one of six locations in Ontario that Francis has chosen to introduce the tenting tours. The Albion Hills, the Bay of Quinte, 1000 Islands, Ottawa/Hull and the Huntsville/Algonquin areas will all be offered through European travel agents. This summer Saunders will set up four tents at Northern Eagle, of both French and Canadian design, on lots bordering Lake Kashagawigamog. Francis meanwhile is arranging package tours for European families, and already has several bookings for this season.

Saunders says the idea will take some time to develop, but growth in his business. He has added 40 permanent trailer sites to the 60 that were already in when he bought the 40-acre operation 5 years ago. Up until now, Saunders hasn't done much advertising for Northern Eagle, but he feels things may be different soon. "A lot of people who keep trailers here year round started out as seasonal visitors and decided to stay," he says. "We didn't need a lot of advertising; word of mouth was enough. But with the decrease in summer traffic now, we've suffered a decrease in exposure. We'll have to get more active in advertising in the future," he explains.

Saunders has promised Francis 20 sites at Northern Eagle, at least four of which will be occupied this summer. But he plans to locate the 20 potential sites throughout the camp. "I don't want to create a European village in the campground," he says. Saunders' wife, Marie, is of the same opinion: "If European travellers are interspersed among permanent people, they'll have the chance to learn something about Canadian life," she adds.

The plan holds great potential for operators in the tourist trade. Saunders feels the tenting holidays represent an important new direction for an industry that must constantly pursue fresh markets to stay alive.

"The market is really changing," Saunders muses, "and you've got to change with it or you'll be left behind." Saunders' sentiments echo those of most businessmen involved in tourism in the county, and although the European approach seems novel in the Highlands today, it may soon be a standard of the industry.

Godfrey Saunders and his daughter Lori: "The market is really changing and you've got to change with it....."

Tapping the potential

he sees the four sites he'll be setting up this year as the beginning of a big potential market for tourism in the province. "This kind of market will take a while to establish," Saunders says. "If you were thinking of travelling to Europe, you'd plan a trip now for next year. It's the same situation for Europeans visiting Canada. We're working with an air line package price of $3,000 to $4,000, and that kind of holiday generally takes a lot of planning," he explains. Six increases in air fare in Europe since Christmas haven't helped in establishing prices.

According to Saunders, the tent-rental approach is common in Europe. "In France, Spain, Italy, all over the Continent, campgrounds rent tent sites that are ready to go," he says. "Highway travel in Europe, and the smaller size of European cars, makes it difficult to haul equipment around, so it makes sense for campers to rent sites ready made," he explains.

Francis knows the camping business in Britain well, and he estimates that of the 400 million Britons who holiday on the Continent each year, 2 million of them rent camping equipment on site.

With the right promotion, Saunders thinks the European approach may have a significant impact on North American tourism as well. "With the economy in the shape it's in today, people take fewer holidays and aren't travelling as far," he says. "The European set-up makes it more economical to travel," Saunders explains. He sees the same trend in the trailer market as well. Saunders says that many trailers designed today are built to comply with regulations for towing, but in fact they are built with the possibility of permanent residence in mind. He adds that most of his business today comes from people who leave their trailers at Northern Eagle year round, and use them as cottages in the summer.

Concrete jungle

Motor home rentals are another important business for the European market, and Saunders hopes to tap it too. He says Europeans who tour the province in motor homes often get off the plane and into their motor homes with no preparation for what to see and where to go. "Europeans in motor homes haven't seen the kinds of things they see in travel brochures; after a week in the province all they've seen is the 401. They go home thinking Ontario is a concrete jungle. We hope to try promoting Northern Eagle with the motor home rental agencies to steer some people here," Saunders says.

Saunders also feels promotion is the key to sustaining

Tapping the potential

The full tourism potential of the Haliburton Highlands has yet to be realized. There is still ample room for more visitors in this uncrowded piece of Canada.

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has recently undertaken increased responsibilities to spread the word about this county. As well, those associated with the industry have increased their efforts to promote, not only their own establishments, but the entire Highlands.

The European market, however, is one which has yet to be seriously tapped by county resorts. Increasingly tourists from Europe are finding a monetary advantage in spending their vacation 'dollars' here. They are attracted here by the wide-open spaces and rugged natural beauty. These are assets which are becoming more difficult to find in Europe.

A number of resorts have already found a lucrative market exists in Europeans seeking a Canadian vacation experience. The latest to join them is Godfrey Saunders of the Northern Eagle Tent & Trailer Park on the shores of Lake Kashagawigamog.

Through a tour organizer, the resort is providing European visitors with a fully-equipped campsite. All the visitor need do is arrive on the appointed date and their canvas tent under the wide Canadian skies will be ready for them.

The concept, which has been tried successfully in Europe for years, could radically change the way North Americans regard this traditional camping vacation. However more importantly for the Highlands, it could help to put this area high on the list of "must see" places for overseas visitors.

It is important that we continue to attract visitors from the traditional golden horseshoe area. But, resort operators and others would be wise not to allow the potential of European tourism to go untapped.

The season ends

Grant program a mess

- by John Eakins, M.P.P. -

In the 1980 provincial budget, a new system of property and sales tax grants for senior citizens was introduced, replacing the tax credit program, under which credits were previously claimed through federal income tax returns. The Ontario Government believed it was not receiving adequate recognition for these programs, and under the new system it mails directly to eligible seniors a Sales Tax Grant of $50, and a Property Tax Grant of up to $500. Beginning in 1981, the Property Tax Grant is mailed in two instalments.

Property Tax Grant: For a homeowner, this is equal to the amount of your property tax up to $500. For a tenant, this is equal to 20% of rental payments up to $500.

Sales Tax Grant: This is $50 to every senior.

The new grant system bears no relationship at all to income level. In fact it results in a dramatic shift of money available for seniors to those at the higher end of the income scale. So dramatic is this shift, that some of the neediest pensioners actually receive less under the new grant system than they did under the old tax credit system.

This new grant scheme has eliminated the pensioner tax credit of $110. In addition, under the old system, tax credits were reduced by 2% of taxable income. That ensured that the greatest benefit went to the neediest pensioners. This is no longer the case. Under the new grant system, the more property tax or rent paid the greater the tax grant received, up to $500 - regardless of income level.

Residents of homes for the aged, or similar institutions that are exempt from paying property tax, are not eligible for the property tax grant.

The 1980 increase in GAINS payments offsets the loss of $110 pensioner tax credit for some pensioners. Seniors who are GAINS recipients are therefore no further ahead under the new grant system. What they receive in one hand, the government takes away in the other. The real losers are those seniors whose incomes are just slightly above the GAINS level and who pay little or no rent or property tax. They will receive less under the new grant scheme, in some cases a drop of more than $100.

By the Minister of Revenue's own admission, 95,000 claimants will receive less in grants than they would have under the old credit system.

While some pensioners are receiving less money under the new grant scheme, the government spent an extra $3 million in the first year to administer the program. Some 4,418 cheques were sent out in error, resulting in overpayments of $1 million. Efforts are being made to recover the money from some of the neediest pensioners. Moreover, the advertising budget for the program ran over its $650,000 maximum level in its first year to a total of $934,700, by December 1980.

The programme is an administrative nightmare. At the end of 1981, an inventory of 10,000 applications had piled up. So many applicants are trying to call the Ministry to enquire about their grants, that it has become impossible for members of the public to get through. Members' constituency offices, as a result, have been flooded with requests, to find out what happened to a senior citizen's application form.

At the Public Accounts Committee, January 20, the Deputy Minister of Revenue admitted: "We knew our

The program was proceeded with in spite of the fact that the Ministry of Revenue was clearly not capable of administering it efficiently. According to the Deputy Minister, at the same Public Accounts Committee meeting, "There were certain technological limits to our ability to expand this capacity. We recognized this thing would be imperfect at that initial stage."

Unfortunately, the situation is not improving. According to one Conservative M.P.P., "I have had four times more problems this year (1981) than I had at the beginning. And the line is always busy."

M.P.P.'s, whose constituency offices were given a special number to call at the Ministry of Revenue, are now forced to send in their enquiries on a new form by courier service, at their own expense.

The mention of assistance by the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office is quite incorrect, nor has there been a protracted period of negotiation!

The Ontario Fire Marshall's Office was NOT concerned in any negotiations between Lutterworth and Somerville Townships, in regard to fire protection.

A committee from Lutterworth council recently attended a regular meeting of Somerville Township and achieved an agreement for the provision of fire protection, in an area mutually defined.

An energy straightjacket

-by Bill Scott, MP-

The government's energy security bill, the bill that prompted the Conservative party to shut down Parliament for two weeks, is now being split into eight separate bills by agreement between the government and official opposition in the House of Commons.

This will ensure that most of the proposals in the bills will go to committee where they can be carefully scrutinized, and where the opposition can call expert witnesses to assess the effects that these measures will have on the country.

Among the government proposals is one that would allow the government to impose new taxes on gasoline totalling 98 cents per gallon, with corresponding taxes on home heating oil.

In the last federal election campaign the Liberal party pledged that it would not increase gasoline taxes by as much as the Conservatives proposed in our 1979 budget. We had planned to increase gasoline prices by 18 cents per gallon, while the Liberals said they would not impose increases of more than 14 cents.

In 1980, the first year they were back in office, they increased taxes on gasoline by 28 cents per gallon. In 1981 they again increased the tax by 48 cents per gallon, and home heating oil increased by 60 cents per gallon.

The federal government is increasing the cost of gasoline and heating oil by leaps and bounds, through increased taxes, while the price of oil in the United States and on the world oil market is decreasing.

It is bad enough that the government has gone back on its solemn pledges to the Canadian people in order to get re-elected. It is made even worse by the fact that the government's rationale for increasing gasoline taxes is based on false predictions and outdated information.

The national energy policy is founded on government predictions that oil prices would steadily increase until they reached about 90 dollars per barrel on the world market. The world price for oil is going down, not up, and as recently as last month oil was selling on the 'spot' market in Holland for as little as 29 dollars per barrel.

In addition, the government has not taken into account the present surplus of oil throughout the world, or of the factors that have created this oil glut. Over the past few years, people in North America and elsewhere have become energy conscious, and we are not using oil in Canada at the rate we did just two or three years ago.

Consumption of oil products in Canada declined in 1980 by 2.3 per cent over 1979, and consumption decreased by a further 5.6 per cent in 1981. The government has not even taken into account the effect of its own Energy Conversion program, whereby householders are encouraged to switch from oil to an alternate energy source. Nor has the government considered the savings in oil consumption resulting from its own Home Insulation Plan.

As demand for oil declines, the price of oil will also decline. It's the law of supply and demand. The oil producing countries in the Middle East had a good thing going for a few years, and they showed us how much clout they had in 1973 when they cut back on oil deliveries. However, even they realize now that those good times are all over.

The government's new energy policy threatens to lock us into a situation where we will be paying increasingly higher prices for gasoline and oil while the price everywhere else will be declining. We are likely to end up in an energy straightjacket, with no room to manoeuvre.

Farm credit crunch coming

- Ag report -

The spring-like weather of the past few days is making farmers think about their 1982 cropping program. Within 3 or 4 weeks, farmers could be on the land.

When the date of spring planting does arrive, farmers need a combination of seed and fertilizers, and fuel for tractors, and maybe some chemicals for weed control, and etc.

All of these crop inputs cost money. For many farmers that money comes from their operating loan at the bank, or from a credit arrangement with their farm supplier.

For some farmers, getting the necessary credit at their bank or their farm supplier, is no problem.

However, a lot of farmers may get a shock this spring when they go to arrange for credit. It is not going to be easy to get. And in fact, some farmers may not be able to get any more credit.

Some farmers have never calculated how much it costs them to grow an acre of a crop. Some don't know what their crop yields have been.

It's difficult for a banker to approve credit for these farmers.

Some farmers have calculated their costs of production and their average yields to find their break-even costs on a unit of that crop. When their breakeven costs are a lot higher than the expected return for that crop next fall — again it's hard for a banker to approve a loan.

Farm suppliers are being hurt by high interest rates and reduced sales volumes. As a result, they can't be as lenient with outstanding farm accounts as they sometimes have been.

So, if you're a farmer who's planning on putting in crops with borrowed money this spring, I hope you have already arranged for the necessary credit. If you haven't got your credit arranged yet, then I'd suggest that you call your banker or farm supplier right now, to make an appointment to go over your accounts.

If you leave it any later, you may not have the credit you need by the time you want to start seeding.

If you haven't prepared a crop budget yet, we have budget forms available for many crops at the Lindsay Agricultural Office.

Two Ontario Programs You Should Know About

Tax Credits — for people under 65

Each year the Ontario Government returns tax dollars to residents through the Ontario Tax Credit program. This program is especially designed to provide tax assistance to Ontario residents between the ages of 16 and 64 inclusive with low or moderate incomes.

This year there is a new credit to claim along with the Property Tax Credit, Sales Tax Credit and Political Contribution Tax Credit. Remember, to claim these credits you must complete the mauve Ontario Tax Credit form and mail it together with your federal income tax return.

- The Temporary Home Heating Credit helps Ontario residents by off-setting increased home heating costs. This $60 credit is reduced by one percent of your taxable income.
- The Property Tax Credit reduces the burden of municipal and school taxes. It is based on your property tax or rent and taxable income.
- The Sales Tax Credit returns a portion of money paid in provincial retail sales tax. It is based on personal exemptions and taxable income.
- The Political Contribution Tax Credit may be claimed by Ontario residents who contributed to a registered Ontario political party, constituency association or candidate in an Ontario provincial election. This claim applies if your provincial tax payable is more than your Property and Sales Tax Credits.

Tax Grants — for people over 65

Ontario Tax Grants for Seniors were designed especially to help Ontario residents 65 and over and replace the Ontario Tax Credits program for persons in this age group.

This year a Temporary Home Heating Grant of $60 has been added to the Tax Grants program.

If you received a 1981 Property Tax Grant and continue to be eligible, you will receive your 1982 interim grant plus your 1981 Temporary Home Heating Grant in the late spring.

Home takes league trophy following 9 - 9 final game

Monday was a long night for Minden Home Hardware but they finally took home the Men's Recreational League trophy after a hard-fought five game series against Hartwick Construction. Home tied Hartwick 9 - 9 in Monday's contest, to take the series on points, 6 - 4. In a non-contact league known for good conduct on the ice, Monday night's 18 penalties were an indication of what was at stake in the game.

The six - point play - off series was close from the start. After three games Home led the series 2 - 1, but Hartwick came back to tie the fourth game and force the teams into last Monday's fifth match. Home led 5 - 3 in points going into the game, so the tie was enough to give them the top honours.

Despite a strong first period effort from Hartwick's goaltender, Home went up 2 - 1 in the first period. Hartwick went ahead 1 - 0 on their first shot of the game at the 45 second mark, but Home tied it one minute later. Barry Walker's short handed goal put Home ahead 2 - 1 at 12:31 to end the first period.

Second period penalties took their toll on Hartwick. With just over two minutes gone Hartwick drew a minor and Home capitalized to go up 3 - 1. Hartwick drew another at 7:11 and again Home connected with the man advantage. Hartwick fought back with a goal at 11:40 to make it 4 - 2, and with four minutes remaining they drew within one - to close second period scoring at 4 - 3.

Penalties really started flying in the final twenty minutes. With just over a minute gone Hartwick tied the game at 4, but 41 seconds later they drew a minor and an additional two minutes for unsportsmanlike conduct when the penalized player went public with his views on the merits of the referee.

Home took quick advantage with a goal at the three minute mark to go up 5 - 4, but Ted Vasey drew a minor of his own thirty seconds later and Hartwick bounced back to tie it 5 - 5. At the 9 minute mark both teams had a man in the box when Home connected on some precision passing and went ahead again, 6v - 5. Half a minute later, it was Hartwick again, breaking in on the right side to beat the Home goalie with a high shot to the corner. That made it 6 each.

With a man off for slashing at 10:08, Home's Barry Walker broke in alone on the left side and slid one by Hartwick to put Home up 7 - 6. Hartwick used the man advantage to tie the game for the fourth time at 11:55. A pass back from the crease set up a Hartwick forward, who found the slot and fed one between the Home goalie's knees.

Hartwick drew twin minors at 13:22 and Home went up 8 - 7 soon after. At the 14:39 mark Home's turn came, they drew two minors and Hartwick then tied it 8 - 8 twenty seconds later.

With 3:19 remaining Home bashed in a hard slapshot on a rebound to go up 9 - 8, but with 2:43 left Ted Vasey was sent off for hooking. For the sixth and final time Hartwick came back to tie the game, 9 - 9.

Gimli, Manitoba, is setting out to make a name for itself. It's not that Gimli is about to host the Olympic Games or erect a covered stadium or anything like that. Gimli has set its sights on something different - to become the purple martin capital of Canada.

Local residents know that the town is a favourite for these dark-coloured swallows, because of its open areas near the lake. And they know that martins love company, often nesting in bird houses that look like miniature apartment buildings. So they simply enlarged on these ideas. On a 15-metre tower erected near the town harbour, enthusiastic martin-lovers have erected a total of 35 of the apartment bird houses, in the hopes of attracting hundreds of purple martins.

Most of us start on a somewhat smaller scale, but the essential ingredients are the same - open water, lots of space, a martin house erected at least five metres off the ground, and lots of patience. The open water provides an abundance of insects for food, as well as fresh drinks obtained by skimming over the surface with an open bill.

The patience is also crucial, since martins seem to want to inspect a new house for at least a year before gradually moving in.

Most commercial martin houses are now made of aluminum, for durability and ease of cleaning, but my favourites are the old wooden classics. In many a well-established cottage area, martin homes are obviously a source of pride - almost a status symbol with fancy dormers and filigrees to match any Victorian house.

Purple martins originally nested in hollow trees, caves, or woodpecker holes. Now they are almost entirely dependent on man-made shelters for nesting. Their pleasant voices and voracious appetites for flying insects make martins popular companions, so in their Ontario range north to Kenora and Sudbury, they are unlikely to go without homes. According to the Nature Society, martins will be returning from their winter haunts in Peru to Ontario on April 12. That date may not be exact, but if your martin house is standing at the ready, I'm sure you will be keeping an eye cocked more closely as the day draws near.

Obee rink claims Straw & Stone title

It all came down to the final rock at the sixth annual Straw and Stone bonspiel at the Minden Curling Club Saturday.

Bill Obee's rink was tied with a foursome led by Dwight Thomas going home in the final game Saturday night, but Obee took the spiel on points, 45 - 43 3/4 after his rink picked up a single point in the final end.

Thomas' team won the final game 8 - 5, but it was not enough to stop Obee's foursome, who went into the playoffs Saturday as the only undefeated rink in three starts.

Twelve rinks competed in this year's spiel. Two draws were held Friday night, with each rink playing once that evening and twice more Saturday before the playoffs got under way. The top six teams on a point basis advanced to the finals Saturday evening.

Playing with Obee on the winning team were his wife Penny, curling vice-skip, Louise Dennys as lead and John Dennys as second stone. Dwight Thomas, who organized this year's event, was runner up in the 'spiel. He curled with Helen Burk as vice-skip, Lorne Heise curling as lead and Robin Heise as second stone.

The Minden Curling Club will sponsor a Ladies bonspiel this Saturday at the Minden rink. The "Sweep into Spring" 'spiel will be the last of the season for the Minden club.

Pair charged following Wilberforce fisticuffs

Two Highland Grove youths have been charged with assault causing bodily harm after police were called to a dance at the Wilberforce Community Centre.

Charged in connection with fighting which broke out at the dance Saturday night are Randy and Terrence Hogan, 20 and 21.

Constable Jim Martin of the Minden OPP arrived at the community centre shortly after 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Martin found a Harcourt man, Donald Meharrie, with a broken hip and wrist. He was transported to Peterborough Hospital for treatment. Gordon Fudge of Toronto received knee injuries in the incident, and two other persons were slightly injured in the fighting.

Pair injured

Two people were injured in a snowmobile mishap in Stanhope township Tuesday, March 23.

48 year-old Mary Stiver of Stanhope township received minor injuries when her snowmobile collided with a machine driven by 51 year old Norman Urquhart of Bramalea. Urquhart suffered a severe broken leg in the collision and had to be transported by ambulance to Peel Memorial Hospital. Urquhart's 10 year old daughter Lynn was slightly injured in the crash.

The incident caused $2,500 damage to the two machines involved. It was investigated by PC Mike Smith.

Minden OPP have concluded a successful investigation into the theft of $1,182 worth of property from two Fletcher Lake cottages in November of last year.

Investigating officers found a 1972 model car abandoned near the scene of the break-ins. The licence plates were traced and it was found they had been stolen earlier in Streetsville. The serial number of the car revealed that it had been bought by an unidentified youth from a scrap dealer.

On the 25th of October last year an officer from the Minden OPP made a routine check of three youths he found on the Fletcher Lake Road in the vicinity of the break-ins. The constable recorded the names and addresses of the three youths. When the Fletcher Lake thefts were reported several weeks later, the officer supplied the information to the constable investigating the Fletcher Lake case.

The Peel Regional Police who patrol the area where the youths live, were then consulted in the case. The Minden OPP in conjunction with the Peel Force eventually arrested the three youths and recovered most of the stolen property.

The Peel Regional Police have also charged two other persons with possession of stolen property taken from the cottages.

Tykes wrap up season with 7 team tournament

The Minden Tykes played close games against Bracebridge and Haliburton on the weekend, but they finished Saturday's Tyke Tournament in Minden with a 0-2 record.

Minden went three scoreless periods against Bracebridge in their opening game of the day. The two teams finally moved into a five minute sudden death period with no goalies to end the deadlock.

Just before the five minute period ended, Bracebridge netted a goal to take the game 1-0 and knock Minden into the consolation round.

The Tykes second match up came against Haliburton later in the day. The two teams skated out two periods without a goal, but with a minute gone in the final period Haliburton's Reed Elstone connected from Jason Parish for the only goal of the game. Goalie Todd Hargraves of the Haliburton Tykes recorded the shut out. The win finished Minden for the day.

Haliburton went on to play Huntsville in their second game, but the Huntsville squad won it 2-1 on an overtime goal to end Haliburton's hopes of a shot at the championship game.

Haliburton led 1-0 for the first two periods after Greg Stamp connected from Greg Sutherland at the 3:51 mark of the first period. Huntsville came back to tie the game 1-1 with a minute and a half gone in the third, and the two teams skated it out for the remainder of the game to go to the dressing rooms tied at a goal apiece.

With eight minutes gone in the first overtime period Huntsville connected for a sudden death goal that finished Haliburton 2-1.

Haliburton advanced to the consolation final against Port Hope, but again they were done in in overtime by a 2-1 margin.

Port Hope went ahead by a goal early in the first and it wasn't until the third period that Haliburton managed to tie it 1-1. Greg Sutherland and Reed Elstone combined for the tying marker.

The final period ended with the teams deadlocked at a goal each. They played five minutes of sudden death overtime without a goal.

The show-down came in the second five minute overtime session. The teams played without goalies and Port Hope ended it quickly after a minute and six seconds to win the consolation trophy.

Orono was the overall winner in Saturday's Tyke action. They defeated Woodville by a whopping 12-0 margin, and handled Huntsville 5-2 in their second game. In the championship contest Orono shut out Bracebridge 4-0 to take first place and the winning trophy for the day.

The Orono team was presented with the Austin ESSO trophy while the runner-up to the champs, Bracebridge, received the trophy donated by Kay and Eldon Bull. Port Hope, the consolation winners, were presented with the Pritchard's Electric trophy while Shirley and Carl Hie donated the trophy for the runners-up.

Newell leads Midgets to win

Goaltender Colin Newell led the Minden Midgets to a victory in the Bob Best Memorial Tournament in Orono last Wednesday.

Newell was outstanding in net for Minden, being named the most valuable player of the final game after Minden defeated Bowmanville by a score of 4-1.

Scot Hamilton was instrumental in Minden's first win. Hamilton was voted the most valuable player of the game for his five-goal performance against the Oshawa Canadians. Minden won the contest by a commanding 9-5 score.

Tim Wood had two goals for Minden, while Jeff Stamp had a goal and four assists. Andrew Shapiera added a goal and an assist for the Midgets, and Greg Newell supplied three assists. Wade Barry racked up two assists.

Minden's second game of the day, against Bowmanville, was closely fought all the way. The first period ended scoreless. Scot Hamilton put Minden out front 1-0 with four minutes gone in the second period on a pass from Tim Wood. Bowmanville tied it 1-1 at the 9:31 mark but twenty seconds later Greg Newell connected from Hamilton and Tim Wood to put Minden up 2-1 to end the period.

The two teams battled it out without a goal for most of the final period.

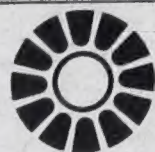

Then, with only forty seconds left in the game Hamilton got his second goal unassisted, and Minden led it 3-1. Tim Wood added the insurance marker, with only 13 seconds left on the clock on an assist from Andrew Shapiera, and Minden played it out to win 4-1 and take home first place and the tournament trophy.

Now that St. Patrick's day is over, we are getting back to normal again.

I am beginning this letter on a beautiful sunny morning. It makes you feel good to be alive.

Rev. Burgess took the service again Sunday night. Harold Thompson read the Scripture lesson, and Mrs. Thompson played. Rev. Burgess spoke on Moses lifting the serpent in the wilderness; and the Son of Man being lifted up as well.

Monday morning fun and fitness once more, as we often did before. Monday night we watched three interesting movies. We had some ladies come to see, but no man but me.

Tuesday morning Rev. Stan Rukin, pastor of Full Gospel Lighthouse, Haliburton, held the service here. Mrs. Rukin played, Rev. Rukin spoke on the Lord's Prayer. He explained what each part meant - a real nice service. We thank them for coming. It is too bad we can't get more men to come and hear these interesting services.

Teddy Carr is real busy, with the help of Doris, making flower pots, carts, anything to sell, and by the looks of things they are doing awfully well.

Tuesday night Fred Ballard came to play and entertain. We always can depend on Fred, and know he'll come again.

We welcome Mrs. Kilpatrick to this restful place. We are sure she will like it here. We hope no trouble she will face.

Ladies in the craft room Wednesday afternoon, knitting afghans, painting, sewing, making dolls' clothes, winding yarn, and spinning yarns. They should be caught up soon.

It is so nice to have Jerry McKelvey back with us again. We hope his back won't give him too much more pain.

The snow is settling down real nicely. We see some signs of spring.

Alfred Richardson has a complaint which is a very weakening thing.

Wednesday night was games night here in this place. Mrs. Curry euchred me. She had the bowers and the ace.

Thursday afternoon the ladies from Lady of Fatima church (Minden) put on the tea party, and also a lovely birthday cake for those who had birthdays this month. It was a nicely decorated cake made by Mrs. Hamilton. It surely was well done. Mrs. Toos Reid and Mrs. Rose Barry, assisted by Doris, played and sang so nicely for us, and treated us so fine. We thank you all for coming, and giving of your time.

Mrs. Coburn and Mrs. Barron came this Friday afternoon to play, and lead in singing of some very lovely tunes. Mrs. Coburn read two humorous stories and sang a lovely solo. We thank you both for coming. We look forward to this, you know.

Friday night the "Sweet and Sour" notes came from Lochlin to sing and entertain. They surely did just that and we hope they'll come again. First "The Sour Notes" took over, and acted as a team. They sang, danced, and clowning around, they really were a scream. Then the "Sweet Gals", bless their darling hearts, marched right up on the stage and really did their parts. Then both sides joined together and sang "The Old Rugged Cross", and "Amazing Grace". We say a great big "Thank you" for coming to this place.

wound up the event with a dinner and dance on Saturday evening. Over 100 Kinsmen attended the annual conference.

The Kinsmen will hold their next general meeting Wednesday, March 31. The Minden Self Defence Club will give a demonstration to club members.

We always welcome any prospective members to attend our meetings. If you are between 20 and 40 years of age, are community minded and would like to volunteer whatever time you have, see about becoming a Kinsman.

Association at the Wednesday meeting.

Al Oakley, director of the Minden - Haliburton Big Brothers Association, gave a very interesting talk and film presentation to club members.

A new member has recently joined the Minden Kinsmen Club. The Kinsmen welcome Mr. Paul Bradley, who works with Wetmore Insurance Adjusters in Minden.

The Kinsmen held their spring conference on Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27 at the Wig-A-Mog Inn. The group held two days of meetings and fellowship and

Kin Corner

The Minden Kinsmen Club held its 14th general meeting of the year at the Minden Community Centre on March 17.

The group donated $50. to the Agnes Jamieson Gallery. The money will go towards a new chandelier for the gallery entrance. The Kinsmen also contributed $200 to the Minden Minor Hockey Visiting with the Beers family for the next three weeks is Susan's sister, Mrs. Anne McCreadie from Blantyre, Scotland. On the weekend, they had the pleasure of a visit from Rose Haxton and her daughter Kim of Huntsville.

The Haliburton District Association for the Mentally Handicapped will hold its annual buffet and dance on Saturday, April 24th at Wig-a-Mog Inn. Tickets are $7.50 per person, and may be obtained from Mrs. Durant at 286-2422 and Wilf Jarvis at 286-1713. This is a most worthwhile cause and a very enjoyable evening, so we hope there will be a great turn out for the event.

At Hyland Crest, a very happy birthday and may more to Zilpah Hie, who will be celebrating her birthday Tuesday, April 6th. All our best wishes Zilpah.

There was a fantastic turnout at the Minden Arena last Saturday for the Tyke Hockey Tournament, which was organized by Shirley Hie. The tournament is for children up to seven years of age. Teams participating were Orono, Port Hope, Haliburton, Huntsville, Bracebridge, Woodville and Minden. Winner of the championship was Orono, Runner-up for championship was Bracebridge, Consolation for championship was won by Port Hope and Runner-up was Haliburton. Our congratulations to all the young athletes who participated. They are to be commended for their sportsmanship.

The Reverend Andrew Hutchinson was in Bracebridge over the weekend and paid a quick visit to Minden with a group of young people, ranging in age from 16 to 20. Needless to say, everyone was happy to see him and his group.

There was a full house last Saturday evening for the lecture and slide presentation given by Major Glynn Lewis at the Lutterworth Library, the subject being the Sultanate of Oman. It was a most informative talk and was enthusiastically received by those attending. We look forward to future lectures at the library. Major Lewis is a most articulate speaker.

The Men's Breakfast held in St. Paul's Parish Hall this past Sunday was well attended and a delicious breakfast was enjoyed by all. We are greatly indebted to these ladies who prepared the delightful repast - Linda Elliot, Lyndie Lewis, Leone Skead, Margaret Miller, Dora Dawson, Muriel Welch, Ira Cooper and Barbara Trocewicz.

Mr. and Mrs. LeMoines and family are visiting at the Lidsters' home for the weekend.

Mr. Fred Hewitt visited with his mother Joyce this weekend. They attended the funeral for Hugh Austen last Saturday. Hugh, who was from Brady's Lake, passed away suddenly on Wednesday. The new Riverview Furniture and Minden Custom Upholstery store officially opened this past Saturday. It is situated on Main Street in Minden. All our good wishes for your success.

Congratulations and best wishes to Janet and Paul Heffer on the birth of their son, John David on March 12. Our good wishes to the proud parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Malott of Kingsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heffer of Cobocok.

It was a pleasure to read the card of thanks written by Dario Dominques, from Argentina. He said it was the first time he had been in this area, and he was leaving with a nice feeling and hoping to come back. Unfortunately there is too much criticism and too little praise directed at the beautiful land we live in and it really makes one proud and happy when someone is thoughtful enough to appreciate hospitality that is extended.

Good news - Paul Prentice is steadily improving, and hopes to be back at work sometime in April.

Friends will be happy to hear that Winnifred Bedlington was released from hospital last Monday, and is now convalescing at home. We all hope she will soon be feeling tip-top again.

At the highly competitive curling tournament held yesterday at the Minden Arena, the winners are as follows: The Hiram Walker Trophy was won by Bill and Penny Obee and John and Louise Dennys. The Ron Wrightman Plaque was won by Dwight Thomas and Helen Burke and Lorne and Robin Heise. Congratulations to the winners and all the participants.

I am sorry to report that Mrs. Mae Austin of Haliburton passed away last week. Our condolences to her family and friends.

Mr. Robert Hughes is presently confined to St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough. His family and all his friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Holy Week services at St. Paul's will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7:30 p.m., and on Good Friday at 2 p.m.

Jacqueline and Jeffrey Cox of Bancroft visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Cox this weekend.

To date, Barbara Trocewicz and Leone Skead have taken orders for 555 delicious Easter eggs, which is certainly some kind of a record. These confections may also be obtained at The Health Food Store and Coneybeare's in Minden and Don Blakey's in Carnarvon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barkwell of Huntsville visited with Mrs. Taylor Kernohan this past weekend.

Also, don't forget the C.I.L. art exhibit which is coming to the Agnes Jamieson Art Gallery in the Cultural Centre next week. The exhibit will be open to the public from 3 to 5 daily and from 10:00 to 5 on Saturdays.

Sunday, March 28 marked a very happy occasion for Harold and Ruth Thompson of 16 Fourth Street in Lutterworth Estates when all of their family were home for the first time in several years. It was a very happy time for the 20 members of the clan and they enjoyed a lovely time together. All attended Minden Gospel Church where Jim and Rose and their family presented a message in song and Reverend Robert read the scripture and sang two solos. Mr. Les Eaton very kindly took a picture of the group and they then proceeded to Gelert Gardens where a fine roast beef dinner was enjoyed by all. The family is composed of 4 sons and their wives and 10 grandchildren. Charles and Ann and their two children, from Kitchener, Ontario, Jim and Rose and their 4 children from Vineland, Ontario, Gerry and Barbara and 2 children from Ottawa, Ontario and Reverend Robert and Carol and their two children from Kindersley, Saskatchewan. Hi! The youngsters are back at school so all drivers please watch out for school-buses and children getting on and off.

There was a good turnout for the slides at the Lutterworth Library. They were about Saudi Arabia and were enjoyed by all.

Sorry to hear that Ada Bowron is in Lindsay Hospital. Hope she will be up and about soon.

Gary and Elaine Fullerton from Welland stayed with Ken and Jeanne Bowron last weekend. They will be going to their first Mission in Cape Breton Island soon.

Mrs. Lil Porter has returned home from the States where she spent a month with her sister-in-law. Bill and Jean Porter and family picked her up at the airport and took her to their house in Oshawa where they had a surprise birthday party for her then brought her home to Minden.

Anne and Lisa Dunsford had a very good time last week in Pickering and are now home getting back to normal.

Jeunne spent the weekend in Shelburne, picking up the children to bring them home.

Don't forget the Horticultural Meeting on Tuesday, April 6th at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building.

Heard Ern Wright is home after having tests in the Peterborough Hospital.

I attended a school for Horticultural Judging on the weekend at Lindsay's Sir Sandford Fleming College. It's a great course and so interesting.

Our Warden, Ron Gambell has been very busy ably representing the district. He attended the presentation for Isabelle Gibb's 50th year as an organist, at Maple Sands Resort last week. Wednesday, March 24th he attended a retirement dinner given for Staff Inspector Ewen after 30 years of service. Also, Saturday morning he was at the Wig-A-Mog Inn to welcome the Kinsmen to their Conference.

I see the old man is finally turning to metric, he bought himself an adjustable wrench.

You know it's going to be a bad day when your twin sister forgets your birthday.

CARD OF THANKS

The Directors of the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association, would like to thank all those who have donated to the club for the 1981-82 season. With the decrease in the grants, the directors felt that this season was going to be one of the shortest. As the community became aware of this, many of you flocked to our support. Many of you volunteered time, while others donated dollars and materials. You came to our rescue and we were able to provide those trails that lure the tourists to our County. We couldn't have done it without you, the people of the community and your willing ways. Thanks again to all of you who have donated in any way whether big or small. It was all appreciated.

the H.C.S.A.
